SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Paul Thompson, 19 CR 56 (LJL)
Violation of Supervised Release, 03 CR 436, 03 CR 1501

Dear Judge Liman:

I represent Paul Thompson in the above-referenced matters and write this letter requesting an adjournment of Mr. Thompson's sentencing hearing (currently scheduled for July 8, 2021). I am requesting an adjournment of 6 months to a date convenient for the Court and the Government.

A substantial adjournment is necessary to provide counsel and, should the Court approve the submitted authorization request, mitigation specialist Julie Smyth the time to obtain relevant records pertinent to Mr. Thompson's background. Having recently had a breakthrough with Mr. Thompson, we anticipate meeting with him frequently to explore his life and provide a more complete picture to the Court for sentencing. This extensive background information would also provide the BOP with information necessary to provide appropriate services for Mr. Thompson and hopefully end the cycle of recidivism. I have worked with Ms. Smyth on previous cases and have found her work to be both valuable and efficient.

I submit this request with the consent of the Government.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Womble
Attorney for Paul Thompson
